

Yom HaShoah (Holocaust) Remembrance Day for 5773 (2013) Radio special

Written by Gadi Adelman

I was honored to be asked by Rabbi Aryel Nachman Ben Chaim to co-host a radio special for Yom HaShoah (Holocaust) Remembrance Day for 5773 (2013).

This broadcast took a different view of the darkness that descended over the Jewish world from 1933 to 1945.

So, we ask "What is the best way to honor those who perished and those who survived?" and the answer rings loud in our ears "Keep a watchful eye, and protect our people!"

This special explores the world and events of those days and the world and events of today.

The words "Never Again!" must be more than a catch phrase, we must view it as a mandate from those who went before us!
